

*Considering ministry outside of Sydney?
Considering university student ministry?*

Consider serving in Perth with AFES on a university campus!

Universities in Australia are full of students who are poised to make life-changing decisions about what they believe and where they are heading. The Australian Fellowship of Evangelical Students (AFES) works across Australia in this God-given window of opportunity to reach students for Christ and mature them in Jesus and his gospel.

AFES WA is currently looking for godly, able staff to serve Jesus, and his mission, in partnership with students and local churches on campuses in Perth.

Particular roles include:

- Campus planter/senior staffworker at Edith Cowan University (Mt Lawley) to grow the existing on campus Bible study group.
- FOCUS team leader at Curtin University Christian Union working with existing international students and growing the ministry (apply by September 15, 2017).
- FOCUS female team members at Curtin University and UWA to partner with existing staff and students in ministering to women and internationals.
- Senior female staffworkers at Notre Dame and ECU

If you're interested in any of the listed roles, or other local opportunities, please contact the AFES WA regional director for more information, or to start a conversation:

Tim Thorburn
tim@uwacu.org.au
0402 396 966

All AFES staff are required to subscribe to the AFES Vision, Mission, Values & Doctrinal Basis which are available online along with more information: <http://www.afes.org.au>.

The Vision

Proclaiming Jesus Christ at university to present everyone mature in Him.

The Mission
