

Discover a fantastic place to serve God

Would you like to teach the Bible to young people, support & train Christians in schools and work in a dynamic caring team environment?

Our SCHOOLS MINISTRY DIVISION is looking for a committed and energetic person to serve as a full-time Schools Ministry Worker, starting soon.

This role involves regularly preaching and supporting Christians in approximately 35 schools.

To be the successful candidate you are likely to:

- Be a committed Christian, who attends church regularly and has a committed prayer life.
- Have completed theological training and have experience in giving quality Bible talks to young people.
- Have strong pastoral skills.
- Have experience in school voluntary Christian groups; preferably both at primary and secondary level.
- Be an organised and hard-working person, who can work effectively, both within a team and independently.

Note: Current Australian residency is required.
