

Tea Tree Gully Anglican Church

Women and Children's worker – full time position

(for the right candidate this job could be divided into 2 part time positions)

Preamble : Tea Tree Gully Anglican is a growing evangelical church in the Anglican Diocese of Adelaide. By God's grace over the past 18 years, we have grown a vibrant gospel hearted ministry to children, youth and young adults in our area as well as reaching out to families.

Tea Tree Gully is part of metro Adelaide with around 100,000 people in the immediate council area.

Current Ministries we run can be seen on our web site: www.ttganglican.org.au

The broad purpose of this position

We employed our first full time Women's and Children's worker in mid 2022 whilst her husband finished bible college. We have seen this ministry being established and grow and wish to continue to see women and children in our parish to grow in their gospel heart, their knowledge of God's word and their living for Jesus, as well as their reaching out to others who need to know Jesus.
